Presbyterian Historical Society Envelopes

These envelopes contain correspondence between members of the public seeking genealogical information and the archivist of the Presbyterian Historical Society. The envelopes are on permanent loan to the Society and have been indexed by Members of the Society. Each envelope is numbered and is labelled with a surname and most include references to other surnames. Some envelopes, marked in the following index with an asterisk, have no contents but may have information written on the envelope. Surnames, for which there is a named envelope, are given in bold and the number of that envelope is in bold and underlined. For example:

denotes that there is an envelope, number A2, for Abernethy but it is empty; Abernethy is also mentioned in envelopes C19 (Cameron) and C25 (Cargill). Because surnames beginning with Mc are so numerous, they (but not those beginning with Mac) are listed separately from those beginning with the letter M.
